

Natalie Mackay

Senior Associate - Dubai

nmackay@fenwickelliott.com

Natalie has acted for local and international companies on several disputes arising out of major construction and infrastructure projects in the Middle East including in the United Arab Emirates, the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia, Qatar and the Sultanate of Oman. Natalie has experience in both advancing and defending claims under the ICC, DIAC, ADCCAC, ADGM and QICCA Rules.

Examples of Natalie's expertise include:

- acting for a large Middle East developer in DIAC arbitration proceedings in respect of the construction of a hotel development;
- acting for a joint venture contractor in relation to an ICC arbitration seated in the ADGM on a major rail project in the Middle East;
- acting for a large developer in ICC arbitration proceedings in relation to defective design works in a Saudi based project;
- advising a large developer in relation to a potential dispute against its subcontractor on a large infrastructure project in the Saudi Arabia;
- acting for an employer against its contractor in ICC arbitration proceedings in relation to the construction of a hospitality development in the UAE;
- advising a large developer in respect of variation construction disputes in the UAE;
- acting for an employer against its contractor in an ICC arbitration in relation to the construction of a mixed-use real estate development in the Sultanate of Oman;
- acting for an employer against its contractor in arbitration proceedings in relation to the construction of an infrastructure project in the Sultanate of Oman;
- acting for a contractor against its lead designer in ICC arbitration proceedings in relation to the Doha Metro Project;
- acting for a subcontractor in ICC arbitration proceedings in relation to a wind farm project;
- acting for a contractor against an employer in an ICC arbitration related to the development of an international airport in the Middle East; and
- acting for an employer against a contractor in an ICC arbitration related to the construction of a power plant in the Middle East.

Natalie's memberships include:

- member of the New York State Bar; and
- member of the Society of Construction Law Gulf.