

'Right, First Time'

A knowledgeshare session exploring how to build collaboration into the design process and create the right legal framework to keep projects on track.

THURSDAY 24TH MAY 2018, 3:00 PM - 6:00 PM,
FOLLOWED BY NETWORKING DRINKS

VENUE:

Aldwych House
71-91 Aldwych,
WC2B 4HN

HOSTED BY:

FENWICK
ELLIOTT

Agenda

'Right, First Time'

3:00 REGISTRATION

Tea, coffee, biscuits

3:30 WELCOME

Chair: Victoria Russell, Consultant, Fenwick Elliott

Victoria is an extremely experienced construction law specialist, with particular expertise in the higher education sector where she advises numerous universities.

3:40 COLLABORATIVE DESIGN: STRATEGIES FOR SUCCESS

- What is collaborative design?
- How can a masterplan help universities develop, collaborate and grow?
- Just what is the social asset of the university campus?
- Collaboration in action: Managing complex stakeholders at The Forum, Southend.

Dianna Fletcher and Liz Jarrett, Project Directors, ADP London

4:10 ESTABLISHING A LEGAL FRAMEWORK

- Getting it right first time
- Creating a collaborative contract
- Key risk areas
- Outcomes/lessons learned.

Edward Colclough, Associate, Fenwick Elliott

4:30 BREAK

Tea, coffee, biscuits

4:50 COLLABORATIVE DESIGN: A BEST PRACTICE APPROACH TO CREATING EFFECTIVE LEARNING ENVIRONMENTS

- Insights from ADP's latest research
- How structured collaboration helps create the right brief and enhance the student experience
- Developing toolkits for engagement and Post Occupancy Evaluation.

Jon Roylance, HE Sector Lead, ADP

5:10 A BEST PRACTICE APPROACH TO RISK MANAGEMENT

- Mitigating risk on the design and delivery journey
- Can BIM, and an integrated design team, help?
- Risk management in a BIM environment.

Dr Stacy Sinclair, Senior Associate, Fenwick Elliott

5:40 Q&A SESSION

5:55 CLOSING REMARKS FOLLOWED BY NETWORKING DRINKS

Register via Eventbrite at: <https://adpfenwickelliott.eventbrite.co.uk>
PASSWORD: ADPFEN-2018